

STUART KNAGGS

Work Experience

April 1995
to present

Marine Surveyor and Engineering Consultant, Deep Blue Marine

Based in St Martin, French West Indies, carrying out the following for various surveying agencies, insurance groups and private individuals:

- Pre-purchase and insurance risk analysis surveys and evaluation of vessels
- Damage surveys of all types of vessels, with extensive post hurricane experience
- Compliance surveys of commercial and private vessels
- Collision at sea and related damage surveys
- Engine, machinery and rigging condition survey and failure analysis
- Underwater inspections of hull, machinery and pipelines
- Survey of cargo and negotiation of damages when necessary
- Consulting for design, installation and repair of mechanical and electrical equipment on vessels and for various other purposes
- Fraud investigations and the location of persons and vessels for insurance and financial institutions
- Survey of damage sustained by commercial and residential buildings as a result of hurricane conditions, risk assessment and evaluation of the same

October 1990
April 1995

Various Automotive and Marine Engineering Positions

Automotive test engineer, maintenance manager, shop manager, fleet engineer and technician for yacht charter and repair companies, including:

- Service technician Nautors Swan Charters, St Martin
- Service technician Top Yachting, Gran Canaria
- Service technician St Maarten 12M Regatta, St Maarten
- Fleet engineer Sailing Holidays Ltd, Greece
- Automotive test engineer for Mapline Engineering, sub contracted to Ford UK to carry out automotive data collection, test rig design and component testing on prototype cars and light commercial vehicles.

February 1984
April 1990

Toyota SA Manufacturing Ltd

Studies sponsored by Toyota. Once qualified, was responsible to the Principle Engineer, Body in White, for the following duties:

- Local design and development of components
- Supervision of the testing and evaluation of results
- Investigation of field complaints and failures
- Supervision of initial manufacture of components by suppliers

January 1982
December 1983

Military Training

South African Defence Force

Personal

Full Name Charles Stuart Knaggs

Date of Birth 9 September 1963

Nationality South African, French resident

Family Status Married, one child

Languages English first language with a knowledge of Dutch, French and Afrikaans

Qualifications National Higher Diploma Mechanical Engineering (4 year course)
Technikon Natal, Durban, South Africa. Subjects studied include:
Mechanics of Machines, Strength of Materials, Fluid Dynamics, Electrical Technology, Thermodynamics, Mathematics, Machine Design, Motor Vehicle
Technology, Industrial Technology and Communication

Lloyds Certificate of Cargo Surveying Proficiency

Master of Yachts limited 200t Sail

STCW '95 / 2010

Appointments Lloyds Sub-Agent - covering St Martin/St Maarten, Saba, St Eustatius, Anguilla and St Barths
Yacht Measurer, IMHRR, MOCRA and ORC

Sports Regular competitor in Canoe Ocean Racing (surfski), running, triathlons and open water swimming
ICF level 2 canoeing coach
PADI Open Water Diver